Artist Portfolio of

PHUMELELE “BLUE” PHUNGULA

Praiseworth Phumelele Bantu Phungula well known by his stage name “Blue” born on 03 December 1984 and is a South African web designer. He is known for Founding Gothamcity Inc a music entertainment company, Roses Garden Enterprise a technology company, and Flix101 an all in one lifestyle platform, Phumelele serves as founder and chief executive officer in all his companies. Born in Izingolweni, South Coast of South Africa, Phumelele passed his matric at Tshepo Themba Secondary School in Gauteng and studied higher education at PC Training doing a course A+ (Computer Technician) but didn't finish it because of financial issues and ended up finishing with Alison Courses whereby he studied and obtained a diploma in web design in 2019 and currently he is studying business management with the same institute.

Phumelele is well known for his tech innovations whereby he designs websites for his clients but most of all, unlike any other artist Blue believes that as an artist we inspire a lot of upcoming and growing musicians so either than shout out to my fans we need to help these artists and make them go further with their music as well which is why he created Flix101 a platform whereby any artist big or small can sell their music, music videos and more, Blue Song “Unreal” has sold more than 20 000 on Flix101 along with other growing artists have accumulated a lot of revenue making use of Flix101 all thanks to Phumelele.

Blue is working on developing a lot of artists under his label Gothamcity Inc as he already started working with artists like Een Leo who is our local rapper and Cikokaziey our local poet, as an artist we need to work with the space we have and forget that we need to go to places like Johannesburg in order to grow your career.
